

Troparion for the Synaxis of the Saints of Ufa, in Tone V—

The day of splendid celebration hath arrived! The people of the land of Ufa rejoice in psalms, hymns and spiritual songs; for today the memorial of the holy and godly men, the wonderworkers of Ufa, hath shone forth upon all like a never-setting sun; and we honor their memory, imitating the virtues of those who with love and meekness, in word and manner of life, were well-pleasing unto God and who have been adorned with crowns of incorruption and glory. As ye have boldness before the Savior, entreat Him in our behalf, in that He is good, that our souls may be saved, we pray.

Kontakion of the Synaxis of the Saints of Ufa, in Tone VI—

O our holy new martyrs, ye unshakable pillars of the Orthodox Faith, true instructors in the Traditions of the Gospel, ye preached Christ with boldness; wherefore, hastening to you with faith, we say with compunction: O all ye saints of the land of Ufa, beseech Christ God, that our souls be saved.

Magnification—

We magnify you, O saints of the land of Ufa, and we honor your holy memory, for ye entreat Christ our God in our behalf.

Sticheron, in Tone V—

Rejoice, adornment of the land of Ufa, unshakable confirmation of our Church, glory of the Orthodox, wellsprings of miracles, inexhaustible streams of love, most radiant luminaries, instruments of the Holy Spirit, heavenly men and earthly angels, close friends of Christ, who were meek and guileless, adorned with the virtues: Entreat Him earnestly, that He grant great mercy unto those who honor you.